The George Washington National Masonic Memorial

Located in Arlington, VA the George Washington National Masonic Memorial is “a repository of many artifacts and the history of American Freemasons, the Memorial remains a lasting monument to George Washington, the Man, the Mason and Father of our Country.” Ground breaking began on June 5, 1922 and the cornerstone was laid on November 1, 1923. The Memorial was dedicated on May 12, 1932 with President Calvin Coolidge and former President and Chief Justice William H. Taft performing the ceremony. The memorial was completed in 1970 and the large square and compasses was added to the lawn in 1999. The length of time it took to complete the Memorial was due to the fact that the costs of construction were paid solely through moneys collected for each stage of the project.

Glad Tidings

We are pleased that our BROTHER, R.:W.: MARTY LINDENBERG is doing well after having health issues earlier this year. We hope to see him back at Lodge in the near future.

We are also pleased that MARTY's wife, IRENE, is well on the road to recovery from her broken leg

R.:W.: RON STEINER is recovering from a broken bone in his foot

We wish all of them to continue on the road to a speedy and complete recovery.

FROM YE OLD SECRETARY ...

The work of the Lodge goes on, even during the "dog days" of summer and even when hobbled by a broken foot. Thanks from your scribe for all the well wishes !!! I am free of pain and looking forward to getting out of the walking boot cast ASAP. Hope that you and yours are well and staying cool.

We had a nice note from Brother MANNY NORAT TORRES from way up in Anchorage, Alaska. All is well and he sends Brotherly love and affection to all his Brethren in Athelstane Lodge.

There was a cheerful voice on the answering machine the other day ... the caller was Brother DAVID BLOCK. David and LINDA are in Florida but hope to visit our area in the coming months.

R.:W.: Brother HARRY SKY called from Israel to say that all is well and regards to all. He misses his Athelstane family.

CAROLYN METLITZ, wife of our good W.: NATE and mother of Brother ADAM METLITZ, recuperating from foot surgery. Speedy healing Carolyn.

Our good Brother FEDERICO LARRINAGA was home during the heat wave following surgery to correct an hiatal hernia. He is doing very well thank you!

Charity and good deeds do not take a vacation.

Good luck to Brother LAWRENCE KRAMER and his wife RONNIE, parents of W. HARRY KRAMER, on their move back to Rockland. We are sorry that there have been health issues and we pray that they may return to good health and live many years with the joy of seeing their children and grandchildren grow.

Our annual closing dinner and Awards Nite presentations were very well attended and we thank all who joined us and those of our Officers who assisted in making it another grand and glorious night with our Ladies. We are all looking forward to our next big night, the Apron Presentation and Dinner honoring our own LOUIS M. IRIZARRY, II as District Deputy Grand Master of the Orange-Rockland District.

Early reports from the boys who attended the first session at CAMP TURK were unanimous ... everyone had a great time and the boys send thanks to Athelstane Lodge for their opportunity to enjoy three weeks in such wonderful surroundings.

Glad to report that we have now received 2010 Lodge Dues from almost 90% of our brothers. To those of you (24 Brothers currently) who have not answered our plea (and the three Dues reminder mailings so far) please send your dues check and save us the time and postage costs for another expensive mailing. If there are financial problems ... please let us know. If not, please send your check payable to Athelstane Lodge for $105.00 ... for life members it is only $30.00 for the Grand Lodge per capita assessment. Thanks for your help.

From The East

My Brothers - Greetings to all as we labor through New York's midsummer "heat and humidity", although I suspect that our Florida Brothers will have something to say about that characterization. Your newly elected and installed officers are using this "dark" summertime to plan for the upcoming year activities and have made many exciting plans for our activities. We have a large number of men awaiting their degrees. Some dates are already assigned. There will be an Entered Apprentice Degree on October 5. We are also holding October 19 for a second set of EA Degrees. In November we will have a group of Fellowcraft Degrees, followed by more in January and February. Finally the Master Mason Degrees will be conferred during April and May. I suspect that by then we will all be ready for our annual year end party. Meanwhile, there is more excitement. On September 7, R.:W.: "LOU 2" will present BRO. JACK GREENE with his well earned and well deserved 50 year apron. "LOU 2" will again visit us for his formal DDGM visit on December 7.

On October 2nd, ATHELSTANE LODGE will have the pleasure and honor to have a Testimonial dinner to celebrate the Apron Presentation to our own RIGHT WORSHIPFUL LOUIS M. IRIZARRY, II on his appointment as District Deputy Grand Master of the Orange-Rockland District. This gala event is one every ATHELSTANE Brother and his lady will want to attend. It will be a night to remember. It will be held at CASA MIA MANOR HOUSE, Route 303 in Blauvelt. The cost for members of ATHELSTANE LODGE will be $60 per couple and the cost for guests will be $60 per person.

Our Holiday Party will be December 21 followed by ROBERT BURNS on January 4 and the eagerly anticipated presentation of RENDEZVOUS WITH TREASON on February 15. We have not forgotten our Florida Brothers and their luncheon will be held during the winter after the holiday season.

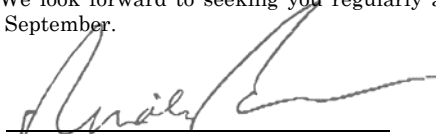

My Brothers, as you can see we have a busy year planned. We can never stop trying to make this Lodge a better place. Each and every member is a vital "cog in the wheel of success". We must attract and keep new members as well as retaining the members we already have. To do that we must keep everyone's interest. That means each of you, my Brothers. That means remaining interested and participating ("participation" is not a dirty word) in Lodge activities, We cannot succeed if only a handful attend meetings. We need - we really need- participation by everyone. So I earnestly reach out to each of you, every Brother of the Lodge. Come to Lodge. We miss you, we want you here and we need you. You joined Masonry for a reason. That reason has not changed over the years. The Lodge - Your Brothers - are here for you. You must be here for the Lodge.

One final thought - SPECIAL AND HEARTFELT THANKS TO ALL THOSE WHO VOLUNTEERED AND ASSISTED IN THE SAFETY ID PROGRAM HELD AT JAWONIO ON JULY 29th: R.:W.: Ron and Joan Steiner, R.:W.: Louis and Wanda Irizarry, R.: W.: Bruce Klein, W.: Louis M. Irizarry III, R.:W.: Bill Plank from Briarcliff Lodge No. 1155 in Tarrytown, Sandy Weinberg. W.: Alec Mulgrew, Bro. Richard Butts, Bro. Doug Ward, Bro. Federico and Marie Larrinaga, and Sara Arras from Big Brothers Big Sisters of Rockland County. Also thanks to Jawonio; particularly Jeff Kassover, Jerry Staller, and Tracy Corriel; for hosting the event.

If I may be permitted to "plagiarize" the words of PRESIDENT KENNEDY - "Ask not what your Lodge can do for you. Ask what you can do for your Lodge".

Thank you in advance my Brothers. We look forward to seeking you regularly at Lodge. Have a great rest of summer. See you in September.

God Bless America!!
